Carolina Christian Radio, Inc., licensee of WWIL AM/FM, WDVV FM, WLSG AM, WMYT AM and WZDG FM is a religious broadcaster as defined by the regulations of the Federal Communications Commission. As a religious broadcaster, Carolina Christian Radio, Inc., has established a religious qualification for all employee positions at our network radio stations. In accordance with the FCC's rules, Carolina Christian Radio makes reasonable, good faith efforts to recruit applicants, without regard to race, color, national origin or gender, among those qualified for employment based on their religious belief or affiliation. Carolina Christian Radio attempts to make job openings available to the largest number of potential applicants possible. Recruitment for job openings are made public through the following sources:

National Religious Broadcasters employment service, Interchristo (Christian job placement service), World Magazine (weekly Christian news magazine), CRW (Christian Radio & Retail Weekly), Gospel Today (monthly urban gospel publication), Salem Radio Network, locally in the Wilmington Star News, The Wilmington Journal and Greater Diversity newspapers, on our website www.life905.com, and on the air. This is not an exhaustive list.

If you work with or are a member of an organization that provides employment information or job referrals, if you work with a Career Services office at an educational institution or if your organization regularly distributes employment information to job seekers or refers candidates to employers, please contact us to be included in our recruitment of job openings.
